Miss Estill a Bride.

The following account of the marriage of Miss Margaret Estill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Estill, of Covington, Va., is taken from the Dispatch of that city and is of interest here as the Estills resided here for several years:

Miss Margaret Lynn Estill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Estill, of Covington, Va., and Mr. Henry Martin White, of Lexington, Va., were quietly married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents in this city, the Rev. T. K. Young, pastor of the Covington Presbyterian church, officiating. Only a few relatives and intimate friends attended the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. White leaving shortly after the ceremony for Oklahoma, where Mr. White is prominently identified with the marketing of extensive land interests. A charming wedding supper was served just prior to their departure, amid the delightful surroundings of the Estill home, its attractiveness added to by tasteful decorations of June roses.

Mrs. White has for several years been regarded as one of the most beautiful young women of this section of Virginia. Of a petite blonde type, she has been a belle at many Virginia resorts since making her debut. Her family has long been prominent throughout the Valley of Virginia, claiming on her father's side the late Captain Harry Estill, a gallant officer of the Confederacy and later a distinguished professor at Washington and Lee University, as well as many other men famous in letters in Virginia educational institutions in days gone by. Through her mother she is descended from the Dice family of Greenbrier, long prominent around old Lewisburg, in that county.

Mr. White is of the well known family of that name in Rockbridge, numbering among his relatives the Hon. Hugh White, Dr. Reid White and other prominent men of that county. He is an alumnus of Washington and Lee University, with many classmates in this section of Virginia.

While Mr. White's real estate activities necessitate his traveling throughout a large portion of the country, as well as in Oklahoma and the Southwest, he will make his headquarters in Lexington, and he and Mrs. White look forward with pleasure to a home in the historic old town with which the families of both have been so prominently identified for several generations.

From Lewisburg, W. Va., were Mr. and Mrs. John Calvert Dice, of "Calvert Hall," Judge and Mrs. Charles S. Dice, of "Oak Terrace," and Miss Alice Leonard. Others were Calvert Lewis Estill, of White; Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Robb, and Messrs. James Robb, of Chevy Chase, Md.; Arthur Harman, of Lexington, Va., who was Mr. White's best man; and Miss Anna Peach, of "Edgemont," London county, Va.; Mrs. Tracey Browne, Miss Mary Lee Browne and Master Jack Wheelwright Browne, Mrs. Thomas K. Young, Miss Ida Anderson, Miss Theresa Grey Rocke, Mr. D. E. Ellis, Mr. Montague Skeen, Mr. Benjamin R. Hooper and Mr. Roscoe Stephenson, all of Covington.

State Birthday Celebrated.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—No celebration of the fifty-first birthday of the State of West Virginia was held by West Virginians in Washington today, although the fact was recalled by many of them that this was the anniversary of the birth of the commonwealth. One year ago the state was experiencing a general celebration, with the principal exercises in Wheeling, where the bands were trying to play and the people were trying to forget the thousand dollar prize song, of the "lilting" variety, which was destined to become the state's greatest and best poem, and which made a Chicago man a neat sum of money. It did not make him famous. Now another year has been added to the time for which interest will have to be paid on West Virginia's part of the old Virginia debt, in case the Supreme Court holds that interest shall be paid.

Almost another year will be added to the interest period, if there should be interest, for there can be no decision in the case for some time to come, in order to carry out the mandate of the Supreme Court and make his final report on or before the second Monday in October. Special Master Charles E. Littlefield has arranged to hear testimony beginning August 17 at Richmond, Va. The captain of Virginia probably was selected because the papers which will be relied upon for evidence are principally in Richmond, and the date probably was fixed because after the middle of August the nights are usually cool, whether the days are or not. When the report is made to the court in October, the court probably will take time to consider, and some time next spring, within a year from the state's birthday, the final opinion may be expected.

SERVICE POSTPONED.

GUY GOFF

Makes Brilliant Address to the Graduating Class in City of Milwaukee.

Guy D. Goff, United States district attorney with headquarters at Milwaukee, Wis., addressed the graduating class at Marquette University in Milwaukee a recent day. The Evening Wisconsin published his address in full. Here are some of the gems of it:

"Humanity has suffered the delusion that social and political evils of the day can be eradicated by the process of law alone, but a religious spirit is needed as a complement to a law that inspires fear and respect."

"Experience has taught that success in life depends more on character than on either intellect or fortune."

"Not every man can do the work that shows in the great fabric of the intellectual and material prosperity of the nation, but if one's contribution must be small because of his capacity, and his opportunities are humble, he has no right to make it small still by not ever doing his small best."

"No man, not even the minister of the gospel, assumes greater responsibilities or has a greater duty to be upright and circumspect in his habit and conduct than the lawyer."

"If you are afflicted with the fancy that the world needs you and is waiting for you, it is best to rid yourself of that idea at once and accept the hard, unpalatable thought that you need the world and cannot get along without it."

SMALLEY RESIGNS.

F. L. Smalley, who has been employed by the Daily Telegram as advertising and printing solicitor for the last year, has resigned his position. Mr. Smalley has not yet accepted another position, but has several good offers under consideration.

Dew and fog both indicate fine weather; while remarkable clearness of the atmosphere is one of the most characteristic signs of coming rain.

JENNIE MALES

Alias Jennie Wilfong, Notorious Character, Arrested on Serious Charge.

Jennie Males, alias Jennie Wilfong, one of Clarksburg's most notorious women and one of the principal characters in the Pauletta case, is again in the toils, this time she is in on two separate charges, and it looks like she will be well taken care of for the next six months.

She was arrested several days ago by Sheriff Stout, and two warrants were sworn out in Justice Jackson V. Carter's court against her this morning by Deputy Sheriff Conley. The first warrant charges her with violating the Johnson anti-weapon law by carrying a revolver, and the second warrant charges her with threatening to kill.

Both warrants were sworn out on information given by persons whose names would not be made known until the time of the hearing, which will be the first part of the week.

MUNICIPAL

Ownerships Undertakings on a Large Scale to Be Attempted by City of Vienna.

VIENNA, June 20.—The city council of Vienna is proposing to float a loan of $75,000,000 at once, to be expended mainly upon the development of existing municipal ownership of undertakings. It is proposed to spend $30,000,000 upon subways electricity is dearer in Vienna than around the congested districts of the inner city, where up to the present there has only been an indifferent service of horse omnibuses.

The bus business, which the city purchased at about fifty cents on the dollar from a bankrupt private concern, has been run at a great loss each year. Vienna's experiments in other fields of municipal ownership, however, have been more successful. The electric light and power plant has paid a clear profit of two millions during the last year, a return of about eleven per cent on the city's investment, but it has been done in undertakings of the face of general complaints that spend $30,000,000 upon subways electricity is dearer in Vienna than around the congested districts of the in almost any large city in Europe.
